TRAVEL TIPS

Air Travel
Dubai has two main airports, Dubai International Airport (DXB) and Dubai World Central-Al Maktoum International (DWC). DBX is the most convenient, located 15 km from The Ritz-Carlton with a metro line connecting the two locations.

Transportation
The easiest way to reach Dubai is by airplane while the easiest way to get around the city is by car. Additionally, there are many options for public transport including Dubai’s state of the art and fully-automated metro system and an extensive network of buses, trams and water taxis.

For more information, timetables and routes, visit RTA or download the RTA smart application.

Taxi
Dubai taxi services are available 24/7 including public and religious holidays. Additionally, all Dubai taxis accept debit, credit, cash and nol cards. If you would like to take a taxi to and from the airport, download a smart application provided by RTA, or hail a taxi which is readily available at the street level. You may also reserve a private car to take you to your destination or contact the Ritz-Carlton concierge desk at +971 4 372 2511 to inquire about additional transportation options and fees.

Currency
The United Arab Emirates uses the Emirati Dirham. Check the conversion rate with your currency before your trip. ATM machines are available throughout the city, but your local bank could impose international transaction fees. Be sure to contact your bank for more details.

Time Zone
Dubai is on Gulf Standard Time (UTC +4). If you are unsure of the time difference compared to your country, please consult this time zone converter.
