

Applications to the Hong Kong Courts

5. Under the Arrangement, parties to arbitral proceedings seated in Mainland China and administered by a Mainland arbitral institution may apply to the Hong Kong Courts for interim measures in relation to said arbitral proceedings and in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations of the HKSAR.⁴ As Article 45 of the Hong Kong Arbitration Ordinance (Cap. 609) allows parties to any arbitral proceedings, regardless of the place of arbitration, to apply to the Hong Kong Courts for interim measures, the Arrangement simply confirms the existing mechanism in respect of Mainland-seated arbitrations. This Note does not address such applications.

II - Conditions of Application

A - Time and subject-matter conditions under the Arrangement generally

6. The Arrangement applies to arbitral proceedings commenced after 1 October 2019 and to those commenced prior to that date but not yet completed as of 1 October 2019.⁵
7. Applications can be made either before or after the arbitration commences.
8. The Arrangement regulates Applications in respect of commercial arbitrations. Investment arbitrations (arbitrations between investors and host countries under investment treaties) are excluded from the scope of the Arrangement.⁶
9. The Arrangement does not diminish any rights enjoyed by the arbitral institutions, arbitral tribunals or parties of the Mainland and the HKSAR under the laws of the other jurisdiction.⁷
10. For Applications to the People's Courts, "interim measures" include:
 - (i) property preservation,
 - (ii) evidence preservation, and
 - (iii) conduct preservation (or 行为保全 in Chinese, i.e., forms of injunctive relief and orders to compel).

B - ICC arbitrations eligible under the Arrangement

11. Any party to arbitral proceedings (i) with a place of arbitration in Hong Kong under the Rules and (ii) administered by the Secretariat Asia Office⁸ may apply to a competent People's Court for interim measures in relation to said arbitral proceedings, in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations of Mainland China⁹ ("Applicant").
12. The provisions of the Arrangement are applicable to:

13. Any party wishing to commence an ICC arbitration shall submit a Request for Arbitration that must comply with the requirements of Article 4(3) of the Rules, accompanied by the filing fee required under Article 4(4) of the Rules (“Claimant”). Failure to comply with either of the requirements set out in Articles 4(3) and 4(4) of the Rules within a time limit to be fixed by the Secretariat of the International Court of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce (“Secretariat”), may result in the closing of the file, without prejudice to the Claimant’s right to submit the same claims at a later date in another Request for Arbitration.
 14. A Request for Arbitration may be submitted to the Secretariat at any of its offices indicated on the ICC website.
 15. Regardless of where the Request for Arbitration is filed, the Secretary General will, upon his acknowledgment of receipt of the Request for Arbitration, assign an ICC arbitration to be administered by the Secretariat Asia Office, where the parties have agreed on Hong Kong as the place (seat) of arbitration in the arbitration agreement(s).
 16. Similarly, ICC arbitrations, where the ICC International Court of Arbitration fixes Hong Kong as the place (seat) of arbitration or where the parties subsequently agree to Hong Kong as the place (seat) of arbitration will also be administered by the Secretariat Asia Office.

III - Procedure to apply before a People’s Court

A - General

17. The procedure to apply for interim measures before a People’s Court differs, depending on whether:
 - (i) it is made in pending ICC cases (see Section B below), or
 - (ii) a Request for Arbitration is yet to be filed (see Section C below).
18. The Applicant shall identify the competent People’s Court to which its Application should be submitted. Applications for interim measures are to be submitted to the Intermediate People’s Court of the place of residence of the respondent or the place where the property or evidence is situated. If the place of residence of the respondent or the place where the property or evidence is situated fall within the jurisdiction of different People’s Courts, the Applicant shall make an application to any one of those People’s Courts but shall not make separate Applications to two or more People’s Courts.
19. At the time of publication of this Note, the filing fee for each Application before a People’s Court is capped at RMB 5 000 and shall be paid directly to the competent People’s Court.
20. Templates in Chinese prepared by the SPC for the purposes of seeking interim measures before the People’s Courts (including the certificates¹⁰ to be issued by the qualified arbitral institutions) under the Arrangement are available on the ICC website.

23. Upon satisfactory verification that the pending ICC arbitration is eligible under the Arrangement (see Section II above), the Secretariat Asia Office will issue the Acceptance and Transfer Letter.
24. Pursuant to the Arrangement, the Application shall be passed on by the Secretariat Asia Office to the competent People's Court specified in the Application.¹¹ However, in practice, it is highly recommended that the Applicant submit the Application together with the Acceptance and Transfer Letter issued by the Secretariat Asia Office directly to the competent People's Court specified in the Application.¹²

In the event that the claimant fails to comply with either of these requirements, the Secretariat may fix a time limit within which the claimant must comply, failing which the file shall be closed without prejudice to the Claimant's right to submit the same claims at a later date in another Request for Arbitration.

28. After acknowledging receipt of the Request for Arbitration, the Secretary General will assign the arbitration eligible under the Arrangement (see Section II above) to the Secretariat Asia Office. The Applicant shall request the Secretariat Asia Office to issue a letter certifying that the Request for Arbitration has been accepted ("Acceptance Letter").
29. The Secretariat Asia Office will issue the Acceptance Letter, upon receipt of the appropriate filing fee, and any other relevant information or documents as required under Articles 4(3) and 4(4) of the Rules.
