Programme Description

The ICC Advanced Arbitration Academy is a comprehensive and practice-oriented professional training programme tailored for experienced arbitration practitioners who are interested in pursuing a career as an arbitrator.

Administered over a one-year period, the programme covers the main stages of the arbitration proceedings from an arbitrator's perspective.

It will encompass issues relating to arbitration under ICC Arbitration Rules, including appointment as an arbitrator, jurisdiction of tribunal, case management, provisional remedies, security for costs, evidence, hearing, award and scrutiny and notification of the award.

The programme includes assignments, group work and eight in-person, mandatory workshops in a range of African cities. The in-person workshops will take place over two days, approximately every three or four months in countries across Africa.

In each workshop, participants are expected to actively engage in practical activities and discussions with prominent arbitrators, ICC experts, counsel and law professors.

The ICC Advanced Arbitration Academy for Africa is limited to approximately 40 participants.

Learning Outcomes

Participants who successfully complete the course will have acquired a strong command of the arbitration procedures and techniques and shall be capable of acting as arbitrators in international arbitration cases, with a particular focus on ICC Arbitration Rules.

This programme is also a unique opportunity for exchanging and networking with leading professionals in the field.

Who Should Attend?

This advanced level professional training is designed primarily for senior and upper mid-level arbitration practitioners interested in pursuing a career as an arbitrator.

Participants must have an advanced knowledge of the English language and sufficient experience in international arbitration.

Workshop Details

The ICC Advanced Arbitration Academy for Africa takes place over one year and includes eight in-person workshops delivered during two-day meetings, organised approximately every three or four months in different countries in Africa.

At each session the participants will be provided with a list of reading for the next session. The session colloquia shall be structured on the assumption that the participants have read the material and completed the assignments.

In each workshop the participants will:

- Discuss the assignments they completed before the workshops, including reports and draft procedural documents (correspondence with the parties, Terms of References, Procedural Orders, Awards etc.);
- Analyse practical situations based on ICC cases;
- Discuss with Co-Chairs and speakers, practical situations and their feedback.

Participation in the workshop discussions is essential.

Written exercises shall be organised in relation to the topics covered at the session. Guidelines and materials for the written exercises will be provided. The assignment will be assessed by the Co-Chairs; feedback shall be provided online through a designated platform or during the following session.

Case study materials shall be provided electronically. Participants will be expected to organise their materials for each workshop. Participants will be responsible for purchasing materials if required.

Registration Fees

US$ 3,200 (20% VAT will be applied)

The registration fee covers two coffee breaks, lunch, and workshop materials for each workshop. Training activities are subject to last minute changes and modification by the organisers.

Admission

Only successful applications will be asked to pay the registration fee. Admission is guaranteed only if selected candidates have completed the payment within the given timeline. On registering for this programme, participants commit to attending all eight workshops.

Travel and accommodation

Participants are responsible for making their own travel arrangements and hotel reservations. There are no scholarship or fee waivers available for this programme. ICC is able to dispatch visa invitation letters to support visa applications only after the receipt of full payment of registration fees.

Cancellation policy

Participants are eligible for a refund of their registration fee if a cancellation request is submitted in writing before 26 April 2024. However, this will incur a cancellation fee which must be covered by the participant. Any cancellation after the mentioned date is not refundable.

Please note that ICC reserves the right to cancel this event or to make minor alterations to the content and timing of the programme or to the identity of the speakers. In the unlikely event of cancellation, delegates will be offered a full refund. ICC will not, however, be held responsible for any related expenses.

How to Apply?

Complete the following steps before 18 February 2024, 23:59 (CET).

Step 1: Submit your application on ICC Knowledge 2 Go.

Step 2: Send your CV and cover letter to DRSLearning@iccwbo.org with the subject line “Academy Africa Application – [Name and Surname]”.

These documents should include your educational background and work experience with details of any arbitration-related experience, such as the number of years, the number of cases, and whether it was full-time or part-time. In your cover letter, please describe your motivation for joining the programme and your aspirations to become an arbitrator. We recommend limiting your response to under 1,000 words.

Please address all your enquiries to DRSLearning@iccwbo.org

Selection Criteria

- Applicants residing and/or practising in Africa are given priority;
- Minimum experience of five years of professional experience in arbitration, with a preference for applicants with more than 10 years of experience;
- Advanced level in English is required as all instructions, assignments, and workshops will be conducted in English;
- Contributions to the development of arbitration in the region are desired; and
- Strong motivation and commitment for the programme.

Certification

A certificate will be issued upon successful completion of the course to provide public recognition of the level of expertise gained. The certificate shall only be given to those participants who attended at least seven workshops and successfully completed 100% of the exercises.

The ICC International Court of Arbitration

The International Court of Arbitration is the world's leading arbitral institution. Since 1923, it has administered over 28,000 cases and has helped resolve difficulties in international commercial and business disputes to support trade and investment.

The Court provides parties with a flexible and neutral setting for dispute resolution. It offers confidentiality and extraordinary freedom for parties to choose the framework for how and where they want to resolve their dispute. While the dispute itself is resolved by independent arbitrators, the Court supervises the process from beginning to end, increasing the quality of the process and enforceability of the awards.
