About ICC

The International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) is the institutional representative of more than 45 million companies in over 170 countries. ICC's core mission is to make business work for everyone, every day, everywhere. Through a unique mix of advocacy, solutions and standard setting, we promote international trade, responsible business conduct and a global approach to regulation, in addition to providing market-leading dispute resolution services. Our members include many of the world's leading companies, SMEs, business associations and local chambers of commerce.

About ICC International Court of Arbitration®

The ICC International Court of Arbitration® is an autonomous body of the International Chamber of Commerce. As the most preferred and widely used arbitration institution, the Court's function is to supervise and administer arbitrations throughout all stages of the process.

All proceedings are conducted under ICC Rules of Arbitration, which only the Court is empowered and authorised to administer. Most importantly, there are no restrictions as to nationality of parties or arbitrators, location, language or law, making ICC Arbitration a reliable and just alternative to court litigation.

About ICC Institute of World Business Law

Since 1979, the ICC Institute of World Business Law has brought together the finest legal minds to strengthen links between international business practitioners and the legal profession. A global think-tank, the Institute stages professional development and peer exchange opportunities activities year-round, in every region of the world. The Institute also works in close collaboration with the ICC's International Court of Arbitration and Policy Commissions.
