14th ICC BRAZILIAN ARBITRATION DAY

Hotel Unique - São
Paulo

About the event

The ICC Court of Arbitration and ICC Brazil have held the ICC Brazilian Arbitration Day since 2015, an event that is part of the international arbitration calendar, as one of the main events in the region, bringing together around 500 national and foreign professionals annually.

The main objective of the ICC Brazilian Arbitration Day is to promote arbitration and ADR in Brazil and the region, discuss opportunities and challenges of the Latin American arbitration scenario, in addition to offering up-to-date information and best market practices.

2026 Edition

National and foreign professionals will gather at the main arbitration event in Latin America, the Brazilian Arbitration Day. The program aims to promote arbitration and other Appropriate Methods of Dispute Resolution in Brazil and the region, in addition to discussing opportunities and challenges in the Latin American arbitration scenario.
